

North American Distributor of the Year Award

Assopiastrelle is the association of ceramic and porcelain manufacturers in Italy. It represents 207 companies which collectively manufacture 5.7 trillion square feet of tile per year, of which 660 million square feet are exported to North America.

Each year the member companies of Assopiastrelle, carefully consider applicants that best embody the following qualities:

- Presence in the A&D community
- Level of professionalism and service
- Leadership to the industry in terms of service and product selection
- Use and promotion of Italian ceramics and porcelains

Assopiastrelle is pleased to recognize Toronto based Stone Tile as the 2008 North American Distributor of the Year Award recipient.

Stone Tile is a leading authority on technical, design-forward and exclusive tiles, including porcelain, limestone, ceramic, travertine, marble, slate, granite, glass and aluminum. Believing that tiles are to the design world what fabrics are to haute couture, Stone Tile set out to create a company and a product portfolio that has become very unique in the industry. Possessing a keen understanding and anticipation of design trends is a hallmark of Stone Tile.

Each year, the Stone Tile team travels around the globe in search of the newest designs that will appeal to its fashion-forward clientele. That search for the best has led them to the top creative manufacturers and the most exotic quarries in Italy and around the world.

For over a decade and a half, Stone Tile has imported and distributed tiles, providing the discerning North American clientele with the most diverse selection of man-made and natural products. Today, Stone Tile has over 200 different product lines featured and inventoried in showrooms and warehouses across Canada.

Stone Tile wishes to thank Assopiastrelle for this prestigious award.
